2025 Exchange Update(continued)

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

As a member of Truck Insurance Exchange, we want you to understand the basics of the operation of an Exchange because, as you will see below, you are an owner of the Exchange.

What is an Exchange?

An Exchange is an insurance organization, which operates in most ways like any other insurance company, but with a few key differences. Truck Insurance Exchange was organized under a provision in the California Insurance Code, which allows insureds to "exchange" policies with other insureds. Because the insureds cannot practically be involved in actually issuing policies, collecting premium, paying commissions to agents, etc., they appoint a third party - called an "attorney-in-fact" (AIF) - to perform those duties on their behalf for a fee. That appointment is made through a document called a "Subscription Agreement." You were asked to sign a Subscription Agreement at the time you applied for insurance with Truck Insurance Exchange and that is how you became a member (aka subscriber).

Who owns the Exchange?

You do. Subscribers of the Exchange are owners until such time as they no longer have insurance from the Exchange. Subscribers elect a Board of Governors which supervises the financial affairs of the Exchange and the performance of the AIF in conformity with the Subscription Agreement terms.

Why is an AIF fee paid to Truck Underwriters Association (TUA)?

Under the Subscription Agreement mentioned above, members appoint TUA to perform certain of the tasks, such as policy issuance and collection of premium, which are involved in running an insurance operation. The Subscription Agreement specifies an AIF fee of 20 percent of premium, although TUA has taken less than that amount.

What is TUA?

TUA is a wholly owned subsidiary of Farmers Group, Inc. (FGI), which is part of the Zurich Insurance Group, Ltd (ZIG), a Swiss company. Neither TUA, FGI nor ZIG has any ownership interest in Truck Insurance Exchange, which is owned by its subscribers (insureds).

How was your premium dollar spent by Truck Insurance Exchange in 2024?

Your premium dollar covers Exchange costs including losses incurred, acquisition costs, taxes, license fees, the AIF fee, and any contributions to surplus. For 2024, the AIF fee was 14.1% of the premium dollar, which included the AIF profit of 7.04% of the premium dollar for that year.

Can the Exchange lose money?

If premiums collected exceed claims payments and other expenses (including the fee for the AIF), then the Exchange retains those net premium earnings (as contributions to surplus). If premiums are not sufficient to cover claims and expenses, the Exchange will lose money. That's one reason it is important to build surplus to pay future losses. The AIF does not participate in claims losses and does not enjoy any net premium earnings. Importantly, subscribers are not responsible for any losses the Exchange might suffer.

How can I exercise my right to vote?

You may exercise your voting rights in any of the following ways:

1. By attending the annual members' meeting in Woodland Hills, CA on March 17, 2026, at 2 PM,
2. Electronically through your Farmers.com account (voting will be available from January 1, 2026, to March 6, 2026, and you will be required to create a Farmers.com account if you do not already have one), or
3. Through mail by requesting a paper proxy from the Subscriber Relations Office (completed proxies must be received by March 6, 2026).

Where can I get more information about the Exchange, or obtain a paper proxy?

You can go to www.farmers.com/about-us for most questions. If you have additional questions or want to obtain a paper proxy along with a postage paid envelope to confidentially return your proxy, please contact:

These fees are included in your policy payment and are not an additional fee.

For and in consideration of the benefits to be derived therefrom the subscriber covenants and agrees with Truck Insurance Exchange and other subscribers thereto through their and each of their attorney-in-fact, Truck Underwriters Association, to exchange with all other subscribers' policies of insurance or reinsurance containing such terms and conditions therein as may be specified by said attorney-in-fact and approved by the Board of Governors or its Executive Committee for any loss insured against, and subscriber hereby designates, constitutes and appoints Truck Underwriters Association to be attorney-in-fact for subscriber, granting to it power to substitute another in its place, and in subscriber's name, place and stead to do all things which the subscriber or subscribers might or could do severally or jointly with reference to all policies issued, including cancellation thereof, collection and receipt of all monies due the Exchange from whatever source and disbursement of all loss and expense payments, effect reinsurance and all other acts incidental to the management of the Exchange and the business of interinsurance; subscriber further agrees that there shall be paid to said Association, as compensation for its becoming and acting as attorney-in-fact, the membership fees and twenty per centum of the Premium Deposit for the insurance provided and twenty per centum of the premiums required for continuance thereof.

The remaining portion of the Premium Deposit and of additional term payments made by or on behalf of the subscriber shall be applied to the payment of losses and expenses and to the establishment of reserves and general surplus. Such reserves and surplus may be invested and reinvested by a Board of Governors duly elected by and from subscribers in accordance with provisions of policies issued, which Board or its Executive Committee or an agent or agency appointed by written authority of said Executive Committee shall have full powers to negotiate purchases, sales, trades, exchanges, and transfers of investments, properties, titles and securities, together with full powers to execute all necessary instruments. The expenses above referred to shall include all taxes, license fees, attorneys' fees and adjustment expenses and charges, expenses of members' and governors' meetings, agents' commissions, and such other specified fees, dues and expenses as may be authorized by the Board of Governors. The principal office of the Exchange and its attorney-in-fact shall be maintained in the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California.

This agreement can be signed upon any number of counterparts with the same effect as if the signatures of all subscribers were upon one and the same instrument, and shall be binding upon the parties thereto, severally and ratably as provided in policies issued. Wherever the word "subscriber" is used the same shall mean members of the Exchange, the subscriber hereto, and all other subscribers to this or any other like agreement.
